

INSTITUT
SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR
INSTITUTE

USEFUL INFORMATION

February 17, 1994

NOTE: Most items in this Bulletin are from the mail we receive on a regular basis. We simply pass this information along to you for your interest.

EVENTS, CONFERENCES, JOBS, NEWS OF INTEREST

SDEB EVENTS

Wednesday, March 2: Ann Jones will discuss the rising tide of male violence against women during her talk on "Women Who Kill" at noon at the Institute's lounge. Ms. Jones is the author of Next time She'll be Dead: Battering-And How To Stop It.

Tuesday, March 8: Catriona Sandilands will speak on the topic "The Good-Natured Feminist: Ecofeminism and the Quest for Politics" at 16:00 in the Institute's lounge.

Tuesday, March 15: Catherine Vallejo will give a talk on "Women and The 'National Project' in Santo Domingo (1875-1885): Difference/Differance" at noon at the Institute's lounge.

BOOK LAUNCH: Thursday, March 3 from 16:00 - 19:00. You are cordially invited to attend the celebration of the publication of Gender Balancing History: Towards An Inclusive Curriculum edited by Dr. Rosemarie Schade and Mr. Keith J. Lowther.

FELLOWS SEMINAR SERIES: The next Biography/Autobiography seminar will be held on Friday, March 4 in the Institute's lounge. Drs. Bina Freiwald and Katherine Waters will give their presentation on "Autobiography and the Subject." The following readings are available in the Institute office for you to review: "Forms of History, Histories of Form" and "A Poetics of Women's Autobiography."

PARALLEL SEMINAR SERIES: You are reminded that two symposiums on minority women in Montreal will be held on Friday, March 25 from 10:30 to 14:30 in the Institute's lounge. Drs. Michiko Aramaki and Aida Boujikianian will present their work.

EVENTS

Modern Languages

The Department of Modern Languages and Linguistics invites you to hear University of Pennsylvania professor Dr. Anne Taylor on Friday, February 18 at 16:00 on the topic of "Second-Position Clitics in Greek: At the Syntax-Phonology Interface."

EVENTS CONTINUED

The talk will take place on the Loyola campus, Centennial Bldg, Room CH-130.

Alumni Presents Comedy Review

"Female Bondage" is offered by the Concordia Alumni Association on Thursday, February 17 at 20:00 in the DeSève Cinema. Cost: $10/ staff (with ID); $5 students (with ID); others, $15.00.

The Future of Concordia

The annual one day symposium on "The Future of Concordia: Our Successes and The Challenges We Face" will be held on Friday, March 25 from 8:30 - 16:45 in the Loyola Concert Hall.

Violence Workshop

Students, Faculty and Staff are invited to participate in the workshop "In the Face of Violence" which will be held on Saturday, February 19 from 13:00 - 17:00 at the Loyola Campus, TJ Building, Room 108 (7315 Terrebonne). Call 4721 for complete information.

Miriam Makeba

Hugh Masekela and Miriam Makeba will perform at the Maisonneuve Theatre on Tuesday, February 22 at 20:00. Tickets available at Place des Arts (842-2112) and all Admission outlets.

March 8 March

A Student March Against Violence will be held on Tuesday, March 8 to celebrate International Women's Day. The march will begin at 21:30 at Federation CJA, 5151 Cote St. Catherine road. The march is sponsored by Auberge Shalom, Status of Women - Canadian Jewish Congress, Quebec Region, Women's Federation of Federation CJA. A panel and discussion on "Dating: Friend or Foe?" will be held from 16:30 - 18:00 at the Joseph and Ida Berman Auditorium, 5151 Cote St. Catherine Road. Call 735-3541 for further information.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Essays on Canadian Writing invites submissions for a special issue on "Writing Ethnicity" to be guest edited by Winfried Siemerling. Papers on any aspect of the intersection between contemporary Canadian writing and recent theoretical debates on ethnicity and multiculturalism are welcome. Submissions should be directed to Dr. Siemerling at Harvard University, Department of English, 11 Prescott Street, Cambridge, Mass 02138.

undisciplined, an interdisciplinary journal by the Graduate Students' Association of Concordia University is interested in submissions that reveal the special value of interdisciplinary studies in achieving solutions to both theoretical and practical problems. Students of under-represented groups are encouraged to submit papers before March 25, 1994 to Peg Tittle, Graduate Studies Office, S-T 202, telephone 7900.

Eye wuz here has issued a call for submissions from women aged thirty and younger in either traditional or experimental form for short stories that are thematically linked to any area of the adolescent girl, young women experience as shaped by the 1980 and 90's. Submissions should be directed to eye wux here c/o Shannon Cooley, Casson Film School, 901 Devenshire Road, Victoria, B.C. V9A 5T9 before June 30, 1994.

JOBS

Carleton University, School of Canadian Studies, tenure-track Associate or Professor level position (subject to budgetary approval), July 1, 1994. Apply before March 31, 1994

SCHOLARSHIP

Studio D, of the National Film Board invites submission for a New Initiatives in Film Professional Development Scholarship 1994. The scholarship is geared toward entry level professional film and videomakers. See the "jobs" board for details.

NEWS OF INTEREST

Audio Visual Services would like to inform all instructors, professors and students that the following VHS videos have been purchased: "A Scream From Science," "Mother of Many Children," "Augusta," "No Longer Silent," and "Full Circle."

A bilingual, touch screen electronic directory system has been installed in the new McConnell Building with a list of occupants in all Concordia University Buildings.

The Liberal Arts College is offering a 3 credit course and a 14 day trip to Moscow and St. Petersburg leaving May 10 and returning May 24. Call 3605 for travel/registration information.

Faculty and Staff are invited to participate in this year's Annual Alumni Phonathan 94 on March 13, 14, 15 & 16. Volunteer by calling Gabrielle Murphy at ext. 3823.

Please refer to the "academic" bulletin board for new publications, journals, announcements etc.

Susan Sullivan has additional brochures for the Learned Societies

Conference in Calgary.

Engineering and Computer Science are sponsoring a Blood Drive on March 14 & 15th on the mezzanine level of the Hall Building from 10:00 - 17:00. Call Christine Vieira at 932-5588 for information.

CONFERENCE

The University of Victoria is hosting a conference on "B.C. and Beyond: Gender Histories" from June 16-18. The preliminary programme and registration form may be found on the "academic" board.